FOR CONGRESS.
We are authorized to announce HARVEY HELM, of Lincoln county, as a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress to succeed Hon G Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Farm for Sale.
We have for sale a splendid Garrard County farm. It lies on the Lexington pike about 3 1/2 miles from Lancaster, and contains about 235 acres. 75 to 100 acres of this farm are suitable for hemp and tobacco. A part of this hemp and tobacco land has been in bluegrass for the last thirty years. This farm lies well, and has a brick residence on it. This is a fine farm. If you wish to see us about it you can find us at the residence of H C Jenning in Lancaster, Ky.

John M Grand.
Lin Grand.

Of Local Interest.

The grand jury got busy early, and is doing some splendid work.

The weather has been extremely hot and oppressive for the past week or ten days.

The farmers are busy as bees, harvesting, wheat and tobacco commanding their principal attention.

Danville is to have a brass band. They always were good on the "blow" over there, and the organization will be a success.

Call at Miss Lena Bright's any time during Circuit Court and get a good dinner, also court day dinner served from 11 to 2 o'clock.

Help is scarce and high. A good colored man, one who can be trusted, commands most any price for his labor. Good ones are scarce.

The colored teachers Institute has been changed to September 24, and will be held at Baptist church conducted by Prof C C Monroe, Lexington, Kentucky.

Typhoid fever is causing much trouble in neighboring towns. Keep your premises clean, and watch the drinking water. The latter should be boiled, so say the physicians.

Communion Sunday.

Community services will be held at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. The usual preliminary service will be held Friday evening at 7:30.

The L & N will run another $1.50 excursion to Cincinnati next Sunday. Train leaves Lancaster at five o'clock, a.m. returning train leaving Fourth street station, Cincinnati, at 7:30. A big crowd will go, as there will be many attractions in the Queen City.

Will Price Getting Well.

His legion of Lancaster friends will be delighted to learn that Hon W J Price has about fully regained his strength and will soon return to Danville and resume the practice of law. He has been at Asbury Park, N J for some time.

Garrard and Boyle counties have united in having the bridge over Dix river, at King's mill painted. This is one of the few remaining covered bridges in the state. However, it was built back in the days when people were honest, and is good for many years to come.

The Danville Advocate says the Queen & Crescent road will run no more Sunday excursions from that city to Cincinnati, on account of the heavy shipment of freight. The last one was run last Sunday. The half-fare rates which have been in effect on Sunday will continue, however.

Officers Beazley & Herron rounded up a bunch of Battle Row coons on the charge of adultery, and the chain gang has several new additions to its number. The worthless coon is certainly faring hard in Lancaster. Keep up the good work, and those who will not work will have to seek another climate.

Sale of Farm.

Hughes and Swinebroad, real estate agents, report the sale of the farm of Ambrose Calico of 115 acres near McCreary to Mr W A Moberly of Madison county, at $47.00 per acre. The purchaser will be welcomed, as he is a good citizen. Several sales of property, for homes and as investment, are in prospect.

Patronize the Lancaster Man.

Many citizens are showing good, honest sense by laying in their winter coal. By the way, don't be led off on a mouse track by "going in" with other parties and getting a car load, but buy direct from your local dealers. They will sell it cheap as you can get it, and make a little money, too. Don't fail to patronize the Lancaster man, and thus keep your money at home.

Must Give Names.

One of the laws passed by the last Legislature requires all persons doing business under a firm name, in which the full name of one of the partners does not appear, to file information in the county clerk's office of those composing the firm. A penalty is imposed for violation of $25 to $100 or imprisonment of from ten to thirty days.

Examination for A. & M.

The examination, for appointees to "Normal Department of A & M College of Kentucky, will be held at office county Supt, September 7 8. Teachers or persons preparing to teach may be admitted at rate of not more than four from each county upon the same conditions, receive some benefit and have same privileges as appointees to the college proper.

Have a Cheerful Home.

West & Herndon, the hustling music dealers, have sold several fine pianos during the last ten days, and have just received a bill of new instruments. They will make you the best and most reasonable contract you ever saw. Cheer up your home by putting in an organ, piano or graphophone—they do not cost much, and West & Herndon will make you better figures than you can possibly obtain elsewhere. Call at their store on Danville street, and see the handsome instruments.

Investment in Lancaster Property.

Hughes & Swinebroad report that they have just sold to R L Davidson the property of J M Vanderpool on Danville Street consisting of house and 4 acres of land at about $400.00 per acre, this property was purchased as an investment, and is the special bargain advertised last week.

Hon. N. B. Hays Speaks.

Hon N B Hays, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, spoke to a large audience at the court house Tuesday afternoon. Mr Hays has been prominent in political circles for many years, and is a fine speaker. His friends are delighted with his prospects, his speech here made many votes for him.

Fur to Fly in Lincoln.

The Local Option Committee, of Lincoln county, has buckled on its armor and declared war to the knife and knife to the hilt in the fight now on in that county. The election will be held under the new county-unit law, and the vote will be taken Wednesday, Sep 12th. All the county is now dry, except Hustonville and Stanford, and it is believed the dry will win by an overwhelming majority.

Pure Carelessness.

For the past two weeks the Sunday papers have failed to reach the Lancaster office until Monday, and much annoyance has been caused thereby. These papers should be put off the L and N at Stanford, where Mr Gulley the stage man receives the Lancaster mail. Uncle Sam is paying someone to attend to this, and we trust the marked copy of this paper, which we will send to headquarters, will be instrumental in remedying the carelessness.

Stock To The Home Merchant.

Our merchants take the farmer's produce. With them he finds a ready market for his butter and eggs, his potatoes and apples. These department stores in the cities take only his money. Our home merchants, not for profit, but for accommodation and to assist the farmers, buy his produce. They sell it in majority of cases for less than they pay for it and handle it at loss, yet some farmers do not appreciate this and take this very same money and send it to a department store when they could get better bargains right at home.

Rue & Currey's Agency.

Rue & Currey, Real Estate Agents of Harrodsburg, Ky., made the following sales last week: For L M Rue his 200 acres, known as the Nat Lafon home, one mile out on the Danville pike, to Watts and Matherly, of Jessamine, Ky $15,000, equal to cash; possession January 1st 1907. For S F Moore, his farm of 180 acres on the Handy pike to J C Gentry and Bros for $18,500, equal to cash; possession January 1st, 1907. For J H Watts his 5 1/2 interest in a flouring mill at Jenkinsville, for $2,000. For J C Wilson a house and lot to Mrs Rebecca Vanarsdale for $550, cash. For Ed Sallee a house and lot on Lexington Street to Mrs Rebecca Vanarsdale for $600, cash.

The Rural Routes.

The rural routes were established for the benefit of rural homes, or in other words the farmers, some of whom, at first, were not altogether pleased with the innovation. They have, however, proven a much greater benefit and blessing to the farmer than was anticipated by the most sanguine. A farmer who has once enjoyed the advantages of the rural mail service would hardly know how to live without it. It did not come to the farmer, however, until he had many times earned it. The farmers are our heaviest taxpayers. What property they have is in plain sight and is taxed while the city gent, at least, many of them, who deals in notes and bonds is enabled to hide his wealth from the Assessor. For a quarter of a century the mail has been carried to the city home, not once but many times each day. Finally the big heart of Uncle Sam has reached out to the men who feed the world.

Outlook Bright.

Bids for the privileges for the Big Bluegrass Fair to be held at Lexington the week of September 17 to 22 were opened last week. Over four thousand dollars was realized for these privileges, which is a thousand dollars in excess of the amount paid for the privileges at the State Fair last year. This of itself is indicative of the general interest in the Bluegrass Fair and the realization on the part of those seeking privileges that it will be the most successful fair ever held in Kentucky.

The demand for catalogues, which were issued the first of last week, has been very great. It has come not only from every section of Kentucky, but from many other States. One man in the northernmost section of New York, another at Meridian, Miss., and others scattered throughout various sections of the country have written to Secretary Bain for catalogues, not with an idea of making exhibits, but simply because they expect to come to Lexington for the Big Bluegrass Fair and want to see exactly what program will be provided. It is confidently predicted that the largest crowds in the history of Lexington will assemble on the three big days of the fair.

Secretary Bain, in his enthusiasm, declares that all six days will be equally big days.

Card of Thanks.

I take this method of thanking those friends who so kindly assisted in saving my property at the fire Tuesday night. I am very grateful, indeed.

J C Robinson.

Fire Tuesday Night.

The alarm of fire, Tuesday night, was occasioned by the burning of a cabin at the residence of Mr J C Robinson, on Richmond street. When discovered, the fire had gained such headway that the building was almost destroyed before assistance arrived.

Hager Speaks Monday.

Hon S W Hager, candidate for Governor, on the Democratic ticket, will speak at the Court House in Lancaster next Monday afternoon (court day) at one o'clock. Everybody cordially invited to be present. As interest in this race is warming up, a big crowd will hear the speaker.

The Graded School.

The Lancaster Graded School will open Monday, the 3rd of September. Indications are that the largest number of pupils ever enrolled at this institution will report Monday morning. It is very important that all children be sent at this time, as much confusion is caused by pupils coming in late.

Becoming Dangerous.

Automobiles are getting to be as thick as burrs on a sheep's back, and lives of those traveling in buggies are constantly in danger. The machines have come to stay, however, and the old horse must get used to them. There ought to be a law prohibiting the reckless driving of the machine on public highways. Some autoists run at break-neck speed, and seem to think they have the sole right of way.

The Big Nicholasville Fair.

Next week, beginning Aug 28 and continuing through the 30th, the big fair at Nicholasville will be on, and from present outlook it will even surpass the splendid exhibitions given there in previous years. The people of Jessamine are known far and wide for their lavish hospitality, and those who have been there before always look forward with great pleasure to a return visit. The show of stock will be fine, and everything for the pleasure and comfort of the public will be in order when the bell rings for the first ring. A large crowd will go from Garrard county. Saxton & Trost's famous band will play.

A Good Law.

Under a new law, the judge is required to draw names of jurors from the wheel, instead of calling bystanders when the regular number is exhausted in making up the grand and petit juries for Circuit Court. Heretofore it has been an easy matter to secure enough men from those hanging around the court house, but now the sheriff must summon those whose names are drawn from the wheel. In this way, the professional jurors—that is those who hang around in hopes of being called—are put out of "business." While it requires much more work for the sheriff, yet the law is a good one. So many of those summoned for this court were disqualified that Judge Bell had to draw new names Monday, but Sheriff Arnold, who, by the way, is one of the best in the state, had them on hand early Monday morning and the jury was soon completed.

Much Business in Court.

The term of the Garrard Circuit Court, which began Monday, will be the busiest for several years. The civil dockets are large, some important cases being in the number, while the criminal docket is heavier than usual, and contains several cases which will occupy much of the time. In his charge to the grand jury, Monday morning, Judge Bell called attention to the various matters to be looked into by the body, and urged them to be diligent and painstaking in their labors. The charge was listened to with marked attention by the jury and the large crowd in the court room. The Commonwealth's docket was the first called, and the state's attorney, Hon Charles Hardin has been working with might and main in every case. Mr Hardin plays no favorites and is as earnest in a small case as he is in those of great importance. Judge Bell, while giving lawyers and litigants all reasonable time, is allowing no waste of time, and keeps the wheels moving rapidly, and with perfect impartiality. The Record says unhesitatingly that he is one of the best judges who has warmed the wool sack on the Garrard bench, and we have had the best lawyers in the land in that all-important position. Following the grand jury: John Bogie, foreman, Charley Burnett, Allen Ray, John Burnside, W T King, J Wade Walker, Smiley Walker, A T Anderson, James Comby, Thomas Owens, John Meadows, J D Pope, Petit jury—John Goodloe, J B Gwynn, John N White, Parker Gregory, Vic M Rice, Bob Scott, Mack Jones, J W Reid J M Hiatt, Wm Scott, John Tribble, Given Terrell, W K Bout, Joe W Wood, Frank Thompson, G A Brown, J W Royston, James Clark, Sr.

Quite a large number of small cases have been disposed of, none of general interest, however. The case against Stewart Humber, for killing another colored man, Will Merritt, was called Tuesday and is in progress as we go to press.

For Sale.

The residence of the late Mrs Annie Herring is for sale, and also a lot immediately back of the said residence property. The aforesaid property is on Richmond street in Lancaster. This is a splendid piece of property. The house is a two story frame, and there are six or seven acres of land in all. For prices, etc, see or write me.

Lancaster, Ky., August 24, 1906

It affords The Record much pleasure to call attention to its readers to the candidacy of Mr E A Gullion, of New Castle, who is an aspirant for the democratic nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction, one of the most important offices in the state. Mr Gullion, who is the editor of the New Castle Local, has had wide experience in school affairs, in fact we know of no man better equipped for the place, and he should be nominated and elected. He was president of the Kentucky Association last year, and did splendid work for the craft. As stated above, the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction is one of great importance, and should not be filled by a figure head. If Mr Gullion is given the place, the schools in the state will be looked after in the careful manner in which they should be.

Hon Harvey Helm, of Stanford, was declared the democratic nominee for Congress by the committee which met at Nicholasville Friday. This paper has had much to say, from time to time, regarding the many sterling qualifications of Mr Helm, and our readers are aware of the fact that better Congressional timber could not have been obtained. Young, brilliant true to his friends, and an indefatigable worker, he will make a record of which his constituency will feel justly proud. If every district is represented by an equally capable man, the Kentucky delegation will be heard from in the next Congress.

A number of Parisian ladies have formed the "Small Hat League," the purpose of which is to promote the return of small headgear, all of which is a timely move, but if they will succeed in reducing the price of the things, man, poor man, will rise up and call them blessed.

Editor Lew B Brown, of the Harrodsburg Democrat, hands out this hot one: "Don't count too much on the place of your birth or your breeding. The devil was born in heaven and of high estate, but he has been in hell a long time."

Each candidate has threatened to speak in Louisville. If they carry out this threat, the Board of Safety will have to remove the lid, for nothing short of strong drink will save the suffering citizens of the Falls City.

Wonder if these fearfully hot days were not sent to give the delinquent subscriber a taste of his final abode?

Galveston's Sea Wall makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E W Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St in Waco, Tex needs no sea wall for safety. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, La Grippe, Croup Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at R E McRoberts drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Im

Farm Items.

It is thought that at least 1,700 carloads of Texas onions have been marketed through Denver, Col., this season.

A Lewis county man breaks the record by securing nine hundred and forty-two pounds of honey out of a bee tree.

A. L. Haggard sold to Simon Weihl 17 head of cattle, average weight 1,300 pounds, at $1.70 per cwt. W H Leach sold to Warren Dennis 500 barrels of new corn, delivered on the cars at Kinkead, at $2.00 per barrel. George town Times.

Government reports of the spring and winter wheat crops show that this year's yield of this necessary cereal is the greatest ever grown by this or any nation. It exceeds over 750,000,000 bushels. And the coming corn crop looks as if it would strive to beat its own record.

One small farmer, whom we know, feeds and clothes his family from the proceeds of butter and milk which he gets from one Jersey cow. The record of this cow last year was 600 pounds of butter and 1,000 gallons of milk, netting the owner about $250. Winchester Democrat.

W B Woodford sold 36 head of fine export cattle at $1.2 cents per pound. . . . Joseph Stuart, of near Paris delivered to Spears & Son, 740 bushels of wheat at 80 cents. . . . It is stated by a reliable shipper that at least 45,000 lambs have been shipped to the eastern markets from this county for which farmers have realized an average of $5 per head or in round numbers $225,000 — Bourbon News.

C C McDonald, buyer of Sulzberger & Scharzchild, of New York, purchased at Paris from G C and J C Hamilton, of Montgomery, 194 fat cattle for eastern markets. The cattle averaged 1,400 pounds. The lot brought a total of $14,162, or 5 cents per pound straight.

Mr G W Baker, who owns four acres of land in the suburbs of Goffney, S C, sold last year, according to the Cherokee News, two acres more from a neighbor, and from these six acres, after providing food for a rather large family, he sold 340 bushels of sweet potatoes for $272; $9 worth of cotton and $35 worth of snap beans, besides making 50 bushels of corn and 500 pounds of pork which he fattened from the products of the farm.

Joseph Downing, farmer of the Chelburn neighborhood, Fayette county, had four sheep killed by dogs Friday night. Saturday, under the new law reimbursing owners for sheep killed by dogs, Mr Downing made affidavit of his loss before a magistrate and filed a claim against the State for the sheep lost. This is the second claim made in Fayette county under the new law, Jacob Graves, of the same locality, a few days ago having filed bill for several sheep which it is alleged were killed by the same dog that injured Mr Downing's flock.

At Lexington the price offered for new timothy hay declined last week and $11 was the best price offered for hay. Sheep oats is bringing a good price and the market is strong at $10. Old corn brings $3 a barrel, while old timothy hay baled brings $18 and old loose timothy $16. Baled straw is selling at $5.25, while the loose brings only $4.25.

Weanling mule colts were sold last week at what was then thought to be record breaking prices; several top-notchers sold for as much as $100. High as the long-eared beauties were last year, however, the indications are that they will go even higher this year, and buyers are already engaging them in Central Kentucky counties at $100 each. In Barren county a number have been engaged at $85 each, and one sale has been reported at $100. Weanling mule colts are going to be almost worth their weight in gold this fall.

quiring about him and offering assistance. He is especially grateful to the young ladies who have shown so much attention. While the Captain is very feeble, yet he enjoys company and appreciates every call.

As one of the most popular couples at Crab Orchard Springs were "missing" Tuesday, The Record thought it would have a wedding to announce this week, but it turns out that the bighearted bachelor, whom all thought would return wearing a broad smile, came back looking dejected and forlorn. It was all off. He has made love to every pretty guest visiting the springs for the past forty years, but we will wager a stack of blue chips that he will yet win the heart and hand of some pretty maiden. Sir Isaac deserves an angel for an helpermeet, and here's hoping he will win one.

IN MEMORY.

Shadows of great sorrow fell over the hearts and home of Mr and Mrs Thomas Palmer when they were called upon to lay away their little daughter, Nora Annalene. On the morning of August 7th, the little infant, while playing, found some strichning tablets which soon ended its life. All that loving hands and a skilled physician could do was of no avail. For twenty short months God has permitted the parents to have this bright, sweet little girl, then he plucked the little bud that in might blossom in a fairer clime. This is a tie-bounding parents and loved ones to a better world.

Father and mother, remember Heaven is coming still nearer you. Your hold on this world must be broken for little Nora is calling you to the "Summer Land of Love." She has gone in advance. Some one must go before.

Then commit yourselves to your Heavenly Father, trusting his guidance. May God's grace comfort these parents till they are called up higher to meet the precious babe glorified at the Throne of God.

CALL FOR Congressional Primary

1. A primary election is hereby called for Saturday, the first day of September, 1906, in all the voting precincts in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, at the regular voting places, between the hours of 6 o'clock a.m. and 6 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of selecting a Representative in Congress from District.

2. All Democrats who are residents of said District, and who are legal voters on November 6, 1906, will be permitted to vote in their respective precincts, and are invited and requested to do so.

3. Every candidate who desires to have his name printed on the ballots to be used in said primary must deposit with the Chairman of this Committee, 12 o'clock midday—fifteen days before the date for holding said election, the sum of seven hundred dollars, to be used in defraying the expenses of holding said primary election, and at the same time of making said deposit each candidate must give written notice to said Chairman that he desires to be a candidate at said election, and notice to the Chairman shall be notice to the Committee.

4. In all those counties having a election in which the law provides for a registration, the Democratic Committee of such counties, or the Chairman thereof, is authorized to cause the names of Democrats registered at the last general registration, to be copied into separate books, as is required by law.

5. Said election shall be held, in all respects, as is required by law for holding regular primary elections, and a uniform ballot shall be used in every precinct; and the Chairman of this Committee is hereby authorized to hold and distributed to the various Chairmen of the County Committees the ballot for each county. He is further directed to purchase and distribute to the Chairman of the County Committee all the necessary paraphernalia for holding said primary election.

6. The Democratic County Committee of each county shall appoint the officers in each precinct to hold the election, and they are to be selected from lists furnished by the candidates at least ten days before said election; and to be as nearly equally divided as possible as to Judges, Clerks and Sheriffs, among the various candidates. The officers of said primary election will, when the election is over, be called to count the votes cast for each person for said office, and after counting the votes, they will return to the boxes, sealing up the boxes and the Sheriff of the election precincts, will, by next Monday morning, carry and deposit the boxes with the Chairman of the County Committee, at the court house in the respective counties. The officers of the election at each precinct will make a written statement of the number of votes cast for each person voted for, for the said office, and will place said statement in an envelope and deposit it in the respective ballot boxes.

7. The persons holding boxes and all returns are to be made to the Chairman of the County Committee, and if he is not in the county, to the Secretary of the County Committee, at the court house in the time required by law, to wit: within two days after said election.

8. And on next day after said returns have been made, the County Committee shall meet and canvass the returns, and certify the same to the Chairman of the District Committee of the Eighth Congressional District, which District Committee shall, on Wednesday, the fifth day of September, 1906, at 10 o'clock a.m. in the city of Nicholasville, Jessamine County, Kentucky, meet and canvass the returns, declare the result and issue a certificate of nomination to the successful candidate.

10. In the event there is a surplus remaining, after defraying the expenses of said primary, it shall be returned to those by whom it was paid in, in the same proportion in which it was paid by them; and if there should be a deficit, then the candidates shall be assessed to pay such deficit. Provided, however, if no more than one candidate shall have complied with the conditions herein imposed, by Aug 19, 1906, then the Chairman of the District is directed to reconvene the Committee, as soon thereafter as practical at Nicholasville, Ky, and to declare such candidate the regular nominee of the Democratic party for said office, and to issue to him a certificate of nomination, and the primary election herein ordered will not be held.

11. The order on the ballot in which the names of the candidates who may enter this primary shall be printed, shall be determined by lot.
